Interest total surprises board

By WENDY HANSCOM

SAD 44 directors got a $118,890 surprise Monday night, when Superintendent Dewaine told the board that next year's debt service bill will be up $203,890.

The $118,890 is interest payments on a construction anticipation note taken out by the district to begin work on the $4.9 million Crescent Park School addition.

Craig said Monday night that he was sure interest on the one-time payment had been discussed during previous budget workshops, but a number of board members said this was the first time they had heard of the payment.

"I feel Dewaine pulled the wool over our eyes in a very serious way," Bethel Director Merton Brown told the Bethel selectmen following the budget workshop.

"If they forgot about it," Brown said later, "they should have been secure enough to acknowledge that."

"At least six people said they had not heard of it," he said, "and the rest never say anything anyway."

Another record

Sunday River ends season

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Sunday River Ski Resort closed for the season Friday, after offering 196 consecutive days of skiing—its longest season ever.

For the 13th straight year the Newry resort broke attendance records. This season Sunday River claimed over 525,000 skier visits, up from 502,507 last season, and with much of the increase coming in the mid-week periods.

The numbers would have been still higher, resort officials say, if the big snow storms of February and March had not arrived on weekends, making it difficult for skiers to reach the resort.

The snow, untimely as it may have been, fell in record amounts this season. On mountain snowfall totalled 16 feet, according to Sunday River's measurements.

8th-grade MEA scores strong

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Telstar Middle School eighth-graders have once again performed strongly on the latest round of Maine Educational Assessment testing.

The local youngsters scored above the state average on four out of five areas tested in October (see box), and fell just short of the state average in the fifth area, mathematics.

The three-year average scores for Telstar eighth-graders continue to remain above the state average in all five areas of the test. (A sixth area, social studies, was not included in this round of testing. Telstar's scores in that area had also been running above the state average.)

Even more impressive, the most recent Telstar scores are (again, with the exception of mathematics) well above the "comparison score band," of results from districts with social and economic indicators similar to SAD 44. In mathematics, the local score is within the band, but much closer to the top than the bottom.

One-hundred pupils (of a class of 103) took the eighth-grade test at Telstar. Three-quarters of the class had also taken the fourth-grade MEAs in SAD 44 in 1989.

As fourth-graders the class had outperformed the state average in all areas of the test including mathematics.

As eighth-graders the class as a whole improved its scores, but scores statewide also improved, and the difference between the local and state scores remained roughly the same.

In presenting the scores to the School Board last week, middle school principal Bruce Bell commented "The Middle School students and staff have a right to take pride in the fact that for the past four years the average performance of the middle school students has been at or above the state comparison band for all areas of the test. This type of consistency reflects the district's efforts to maintain and provide programs of academic excellence."

Gender perplexity remains

But Bell also acknowledged that the different levels of performance among boys and girls was "a concern for our school district."

"It's normally expected that boys might do a little better in math and science and girls in reading and writing," he told the directors, but the extent of the gender differences in the most recent scores was a cause for concern—especially in the areas of math and science, where local boys outscored girls by 72 and 69 points respectively.

"I just want to report to you that administrators are thinking about these things. We're working on them, but clearly as I call around the state and talk to people and ask them what you do about it there aren't a lot of answers."

Bell noted later, however, that while each gender had its own areas of relative strength and weakness in the test, overall the local boys and girls did about equally well.

There was no evidence in the latest scores of local boys significantly underperforming their female classmates—a pattern which has turned up persistently in past SAD 44 MEA results.

Tracksters peaking

By WENDY HANSCOM

The Telstar High School track teams are improving steadily as the season winds down toward the Mountain Valley Conference, regional and state meets.

Telstar's perennial problem of no track to practice on creates the usual strengths and weaknesses on the two teams.

Both are doing fairly well in distance running, jumping and throwing weights, which can be practiced in the preseason, but the teams are weak at the events they cannot practice at Telstar, such as hurdles and sprints.

Both teams logged their first win against Hebron and Hyde academics on Saturday, May 8. Last week, the Rebel girls also took first against Mt. Abram and Dirigo, while the boys came in third.

Boys track

Three members of the boys track team have qualified for competition in the upcoming May 29 regional meet. Winners at the regional meet will qualify for the state meet on June 5.

Junior Kevin Rosenberg has qualified for regionals in the triple-jump, sophomore Todd Wing in the high-jump and senior Fred Burk in the 400-meter dash.

Seniors on this year's team include Doug Bennett, javelin and discus; Bo Smith, high-jump, javelin and discus; and Adam Craig, pole vault, relays and discus.

Sophomore Joel Riley competes in the disc throw and 1,600- and 3,200-meter runs.

The young team has a number of freshman, including Doug Koskelo, 100-, 200- and 400-meter dashes; Janko Radosavljevic, 110- and 300-meter hurdles and relay races; Justin Hutchins, 800- and 400-meter runs; Ian Richardson, the 3,200; Joel Dakin, shotput; Sean Hawkes, javelin, shot put and discus.

Lost in Upton: Youngster's extra effort finds grandpa

By WENDY HANSCOM

About 3:30 last Tuesday afternoon Roland Bernier of Upton decided to go for a walk.

His family says the 75-year-old victim of Alzheimer's disease often takes a stroll in the afternoon, but last week he took a wrong turn and ended up lost in the woods.

Nearly two-and-a-half hours later, Bernier's grandson Joseph Brown, 13, found his grandfather more than a mile-and-a-half away from home and near exhaustion.

Bernier's daughter Laurie Brown said she was working in her parents' garden near their home at the end of Back Street, when she thought she heard someone yelling late last Tuesday afternoon.

"I didn't think to think about it then," Brown said. "But later when the UPS man came up the road, we asked him if he'd seen Dad walking on Back Street. He said no, then we realized Dad had been gone for almost an hour."

Brown went down Back Street searching for her father, when she didn't find him she began rounding up friends and relatives to search for Bernier.

By the time she contacted the

Davis Park toddler playground proposed

By WENDY HANSCOM

The Bethel area's youngest citizens will have a place to socialize and play this summer, if the Bethel Area Playground Committee can raise enough money for construction of a toddler's playground at Davis Park.

Marie Keane, who is organizing the playground project, said the committee is hoping to raise approximately $12,000 for site preparation, playground equipment, fencing, a wooden boundary around the play-area and fill-in sand.

As funds are available this summer, Keane said, the group would like to begin grading the area and putting up wooden fencing.

Keane said several local contractors have volunteered to do most of the labor.

The committee got the go ahead from the Bethel selectmen recently to construction and begin raising funds for the playground.

"We've applied for a grant and are planning some fundraisers," Keane said. "We want to get started as the money comes in."

"We want this to be a place where parents can get together and the toddlers can play and be active," Keane said. "I have a swing set in my backyard, but not everyone can afford one. It would be a good place for parents of small children to socialize, too."

Anyone who would like to make a contribution to the project should take the donation to the town office.

The next Bethel Area Playground Committee meeting is Tuesday, May 25 at 7:30 p.m. at Keane's home on the Sunday River Road. For more information about the committee or project contact Keane at 824-2608, or Marci Baker at 824-2213.

Letters to the editor

KEEP WASTE COSTS IN THE TAX BILL

To the Editor:

It is my understanding that the Bethel selectmen are in the process of considering several different methods of dealing with the difficult question of solid waste disposal. One of the methods under consideration is paying for each bag that is disposed of. Since I know that the selectmen value opinions of concerned citizens, I would like to express my opposition to such a plan.

I believe that such a plan would most certainly increase litter and filth in our town. Any public trash can, either at a store, rest area or school would be filled with homeowners' trash. In addition, I believe the sides of the roads would be littered with household trash and large private landowners (of which I am not) would have to be constantly on the lookout for people using their land as private dumps.

I know one of the strong arguments for such a system is that it is equitable--high users pay high waste removal fees. However, these "high users" are generally high taxpaying, i.e., businesses, or they are the school system, which is ultimately funded by taxpayer dollars anyway.

There are areas that town government could lessen its involvement--primarily restricting the use of private land, but easy disposal of solid waste is one service town government should provide if we want a clean community.

I hope the selectmen will cut other services, such as planning, but provide the necessary funding for easy, efficient solid waste disposal.

THANKS FOR THE HELP

To the Editor:

I would like to publicly thank all my wonderful friends and neighbors for their assistance while I was recuperating from surgery. To all of those who stopped by and helped split or stack wood, to all who gave me rides to work, the doctor's or to buy food, to those who helped to plow my driveway or shovel my walk, and to those who took me to their homes so I could take a bath, thank you. I feel truly blessed to have so many wonderful caring people in my community. I could not have survived without you. As spring blossoms and I face more surgery, I can only say to all of you, thanks for being there.

Newry clean-up day June 5

The Newry selectmen announced last week that the town will sponsor a clean-up day on June 5.

Helping residents rid themselves of tires, brown and white goods, mattresses, metals, construction debris, rugs, windows and other non-recyclable glass will cost the town approximately $3,500, according to selectman Steve Wight.

Items not accepted for the one-day clean-up are household trash, brush and leaves, toxic waste, such as paint and oils, and all recyclable items.

The town will bring in "roll-off" collection bins and hire a trucking contractor to pick up the debris along the town's roadsides.

Consolidated Waste Service in Norridgewock will rent the town the 50-cubic-yard containers at a cost of $25 a week. The company will charge $175 to deliver the empty containers and $275 to haul the loaded containers to Norridgewock and a $50 per ton tipping fee.

The roll-off containers will be placed a parking lot five at Sunday River Ski Resort.

CWS will deliver the containers on June 5 and will remove them on June 9.

Town tries for CDBG

In other business at last week's selectmen's meeting, consultant Stacy Benjamin reported that she has completed the town's application for a Community Development Block Grant for handicap access renovations to the Bear River Grange Hall and the Town Office.

Benjamin said no cost estimate figures were included in the proposal. If the request is granted, she said, CDBG officials will recommend a price for the project.

Selectman James Sysko said the project will probably be expensive, because there are no ramps and the doors are not wide enough for wheelchairs at either building. The upstairs meeting room at the grange hall can now only be reached by stairs and the building has no bathrooms, he said.

Town Clerk Sylvia Gray also announced that 98 percent of the town's 1992 taxes have been collected.

gallon fee the town was losing money when it accepted the septic waste.

Gundersen estimated the actual cost of treating the thick, non-oxygenated septic waste at approximately 5 cents per gallon.

At the former Roberts' Poultry Farm, where haulers take the waste to be spread when the sewer plant cannot accept it, the fee is 6 cents per gallon, Gundersen noted.

He suggested a fee of 2 cents per gallon over what the poultry farm charges, and limiting the acceptance of sewage at the treatment plant to Bethel residents in emergency situations.

The selectmen took the suggestion under consideration until after June Town Meeting. They noted, however, that there might be opposition to raising the fee, since the low, 2 cents-per-gallon charge was adopted in part as a payback to town residents who are not on the town sewer system, but who must pay taxes to support the system.

Putnam new CEO

In other business at the selectmen's regular meeting Monday evening, Town Manager Madeline Henley announced that selectman Norman Putnam had accepted the position of code enforcement officer.

Bernier

Warden's Service to join the search, about eight or ten people were looking for Bernier.

"The warden told me to get everybody out of the woods," Brown said. "He said if a plane was needed to look for Dad, he wanted the only one in the woods to be the person they were looking for. He also said too many people in the woods could mess up the dogs. So we got everybody out of the woods except Joseph and another neighbor."

Brown said she had given her son Joseph, a Telstar Middle School eighth-grader, one hour to look for his grandfather, before he had to come out of the woods.

"I didn't want him in there too long, without knowing where he was," Brown said.

Joseph said he had about ten minutes left of his allotted time when he decided to go over one more rise.

"I was about ready to head back and then I saw him," Joseph said. "I came on him by luck. I was hollering to him the whole time, but he didn't respond."

Joseph took his grandfather up a hill and yelled for help. The only remaining neighbor in the woods heard Joseph and came to help.

The neighbor stayed with Bernier, while Joseph struck out to let his family know Bernier had been found. The Warden Service was preparing to send in dogs to track Bernier, just as Joseph came out of the woods.

"I was really proud that Joseph knew enough to climb up a hill and yell for help," his mother said. "He kept his cool."

Brown said Bernier claimed he was never lost.

"Dad followed a logging road, and then it came to an end," Brown said. "The game wardens told us when people don't know where they are they almost always go downhill and that's what Dad did. When he got out he was pretty exhausted, but said he wasn't lost and knew where he was the whole time."

Game Warden Norman Lewis, who responded to the rescue call last week, said fortunately the Bernier family did all the right things during the search.

The budget outline is still preliminary. The district does not know how much money it will get from the state.

The directors made a number of personnel and program cuts in the FY '94 budget (see box) in an attempt to offset non discretionary spending increases and possible state cuts.

Any or all of the budget cuts proposed last week could change before the board eventually signs the warrant for the annual district meeting.

The board has tentatively scheduled a public hearing on the proposed budget on June 14, and the district-wide budget meeting on June 23.

Rebels swinging for playoffs

By WENDY HANSCOM

The Telstar High School baseball and softball teams are both in the running for the western Maine Class C baseball playoffs.

The girls seemed poised for a good seed, but the boys may be faltering.

The softball team is 8-1 for the season. Coach Jim Lunney said the girls should seed at least as high as fourth, which would mean at least the first playoff game would be held at home.

Class B Lisbon handed the Rebels their first loss of the season last Monday. Earlier in the season the Rebels ended the Greyhounds' 47-game home winning streak with 11-8 win at Lisbon. The Greyhounds returned the favor on Telstar's turf last Monday when they beat the Rebels 6-5.

Lisbon took the lead in the seventh inning. The Greyhounds loaded the bases on a pair of singles and an error. A two-run single tied the game and an infield hit sent home the eventual winning run.

From the Bethel Police log: Chainsaw and Boy Scout sign swiped;

Monday, a Newton and Tebbets, Inc. employee reported the theft of a chainsaw from the mill's yard. Police estimated the value of the saw at $636.

Sunday, Ray Harrington of Greenwood reported that a Boy Scout Jamboree directional sign at the intersection of Bridge and Cross streets had been stolen.

In other police news last week, a church official from Our Lady of the Snows requested extra police patrol of the church grounds. Vandals have broken windows and done other damage to the Route 26 church recently, the police report said.

Friday, Bethel police assisted State Police with serving an arrest warrant for burglary and theft on Charles Jaros, 27, of Bethel, according to Bethel Chief Dale Bellman's report. Bethel police transported Jaros to the Rumford jail.

Telstar threatened in the bottom of the seventh with runners at first and second, but Lisbon's shortstop robbed pitcher Stacie Kangas of a potential game-tying hit to end the game.

Wednesday, the girls shut-out Carrabec 14-0. Kangas pitched a one-hitter. Kangas and Faye Luxton each drove in two runs on their hits.

Friday, Telstar improved on its record by beating Jay 12-1. Kangas pitched a two-hitter, struck out eight batters and had no walks.

Kangas had three hits and four RBI. Dani Bernier and Mae Lynn Patten had two hits each and Pam Bennett drove in three runs.

Baseball team fading?

After a strong start, the baseball team may have peaked early.

Coach Bob Remington said his team will have to win at least three, and possibly four, of its remaining five games to qualify for the post-season western Maine Class C playoffs.

The Rebels went into last week with a winning record of 4-2, but after three losses Telstar's record now stands at 4-5.

Last Monday, Lisbon beat Telstar 18-3.

Wednesday, the boys lost to Carrabec 11-10. Carrabec held a 11-6 advantage going into the sixth inning, when Telstar rallied to score four runs and pulled within one.

Adam Newell and Pete Miserocchi each had two hits for the Rebels. Miserocchi also hit a triple and collected two RBI. Newell drove in three runs on his two singles.

Friday, Telstar lost to Jay 8-5. After falling behind 3-0, The Rebels closed to within a run in the fourth inning. Following a Sean Gilson double, Chris Howe lofted a high fly ball to right for a two-run homer.

But the Tigers came back and scored two runs in the bottom of the fourth and followed up with three more runs in the eighth.

Both the baseball and softball teams play home again Saturday, May 22 at 11 p.m. against Livermore Falls and Monday, May 24 at 4 p.m. against Mt. Abram.

Locke Mills

By CRYSTAL LAKE

A tribute to John Mills by Vera Cross: He was a quiet man, never made any waves, but he was there when we needed him, always ready to lend a helping hand. He had a rare humor, ready to share a joke or a chuckle. We shall miss seeing him out walking the dog, with his orange cat following behind. We shall miss him in many ways, his family, neighbors and many friends.

Vera Cross enjoyed a cookout on Mother's Day with Ken and Nellie Swan at their home on Paris Hill. Others present were Alan and Bethana Swan and daughter Katie, Linda, Mitchell, Verna Swan and Clara Whitman.

Charles and Jeannette Knight celebrated their 38th wedding anniversary on May 6.

Charles and Jeannette Knight spent Mother's Day with Marion and family at East Waterford. They also visited Jeannette's brother and his wife in Hanover, as well as Beverly Sylvester and son John also in Hanover.

Charles and Jeannette Knight visited her cousin Jason Smith and wife Phyllis in Bethel.

Marion Smith and son Richard called on Jeannette Knight recently. Charles and Jeannette Knight visited four of his deceased brother's family of six in Sanford last Saturday. The family lost both their father and mother in their mid-ages.

Charlie and Jeannette Knight visited his sister Marjorie Hatfield at Mt. Ridge Nursing Home in Franklin, N.H., also her son Herbert in Northfield, N.H.

Al and Crystal Lake celebrated their 24th wedding anniversary on May 3. To celebrate they went to New Hampshire and spent the night at the Town and Country Motor Inn in Gorham. We spent some time at the pool and even enjoyed the sunshine. That evening we enjoyed a very nice supper, then did some relaxing.

Ben Michaud, from Northern Michigan University, recently spent a week with his parents Bernie and Debbie Michaud. Now he is spending some time with his grandmother and working in York.

Debbie Michaud recently hosted a supper party for several friends and neighbors honoring Bernie's birthday.

I spent last week with a very uncomfortable "bug." Was able to get outside again Sunday.

Wednesday I went to Hanover for an overnight visit with the Adamses. In the evening Dottie and I attended the Air Force Band of Liberty Concert at Muskie Auditorium.

Norma and I called on the Bernard Gatchell family in Bryant Pond on Saturday afternoon.

Ethel and Jon came up Saturday and Dottie came Sunday.

Bill and Phyllis Bancroft are spending the weekend in Lisbon Falls. They will attend the graduation ceremonies of the University of Southern Maine. Their granddaughter Stephanie Halle is a member of this year's senior class. Also, on Saturday night they will attend the senior prom of the senior class of Lisbon Falls High School where their grandson Gregory Halle is one of the King candidates. He plans to attend the University of Maine in Orono this fall.

Now the new green leaves burst forth this week. Hope the white frosts the last two mornings have not hurt the fruit tree blooms.

The hair as well as the hair can be trained properly through the use of a brush.

Clean-up day for the East Bethel Cemetery will be May 22 with the rain day May 23.

Opal Tyler and Peggy Coolidge, along with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Twitchell attended Senior Citizens at the Town and Country in Gorham, N.H., on May 12.

Serena Enman of Canton visited Peggy Coolidge recently and both went to Breau's for ice cream.

Ruby Coolidge attended a barbecue on May 9 at Mr. and Mrs.

Norton Cross's camp on Songo Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Morton of Hanover took Florence Hastings for a Mother's Day lunch at the Bethel Inn. After lunch, Florence Hastings went to Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bancroft's on Paris Hill.

Marilyn Mollicone of Augusta visited Leslie Noyes from May 6 to 10.

Visitors at Arlene Harrington's for Mother's Day were: Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Smith with son Dirk and friend Michelle; son Sean and friend Angela from Bucksport; Mrs. Karen Lanpher with Jacob, Jeremy and Jamie from East Orland; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Saunders with children Devin and Morgan from Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crockett and son Jason; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fuller of Locke Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Andie Smith of West Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bean and girls Staci and Jennifer and Scott Higgins of Locke Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hallman with children Megan, Heather and Whitney of Durham.

Our sympathy and prayers are with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wallace and family in the death of her mother, Shirley Foster, from So. Paris. Shirley was a good member of the Norway Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War and we shall miss her.

On Sunday morning my daughter-in-law Carole Nelson took me out to breakfast for Mother's Day and we attended the Grace Fellowship Church in So. Paris with Pastor Lloyd Waterhouse leading the service.

Carole's daughter Julie and her daughter Kirsten joined us for the church services. There must have been about 80 people there. It was a very enjoyable day.

Frances Grant has been helping Gladys Kilgore with her meals on Saturdays and Sundays. Gladys is gaining but slowly.

On May 11, the Oxford County Republicans held their meeting here at the Stoneham Fire Station with a supper preceding the meeting. Stoneham members provided the main meal with out-of-towners bringing the salads and desserts, which works out very well. The meeting was opened by Chairman Stan Howe, guest speaker. State Senator Charlie Sommers was introduced by Senator Dana Hanley. They would like to see more people get involved in these important issues. If you don't like the way things are run, get out and get information and act upon it. Remember, "the wheel that squeaks the loudest gets the grease!" The little cook booklets sold well and we still have more if you didn't get one.

They are different, and you have to see one and use one to really appreciate them. They make good gifts, too.

Bethany Rogers and two children from northern Maine visited her parents, Craig and Kathy Adams over Mother's Day weekend.

Debbie and Richard Herrick of Oxford called on Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant Sunday.

NEW BETHEL POSTMASTER—Norman A. Milliard of Locke Mills is Bethel's new postmaster. Milliard recently spent six months working as the officer-in-charge at the Norway Post Office. "I'm very pleased to be here," Milliard said. "It's been a long-time goal to achieve the level of postmaster. I'm looking forward to being here and getting to know the community—from being involved in community activities to improving the mail service." Milliard began his new job Wednesday and said he is hoping postal customers will drop by to meet him and pass on their complaints or praise about the Bethel office. Frank Ettl, who was officer-in-charge at Bethel for eight months, returned to his postmaster's job in Bryant Pond, Milliard said.

Today, May 10, is starting out with cloudiness, so I don't feel too bad about being inside to get this news ready to go to the Citizen. We've been on the go this past week and haven't accomplished as much as we should have at home.

Monday, May 3, Franklin Grange of Bryant Pond hosted a two-point meeting with Mount Sugarloaf Grange from Dixfield. Franklin Grange put on a good supper for all, and Mount Sugarloaf members filled the offices and put on a very nice program. It is always nice when we can get together with another Grange.

Tuesday, I worked around here at various jobs getting ready for the spring work. I was getting the little tractor ready when I stubbed my toe and took a nose dive into the wall, hurting my neck and back. That didn't keep us from attending the potluck supper and meeting of Oxford Pomona Grange, hosted by Bear Mountain Grange of So. Waterford. Attendance was small, but we had a real good time. Our next meeting will be with Frederick Robbie Grange on June 1.

Wednesday, we attended the funeral for Shirley Foster at Raymond's Funeral Home in Norway. Many relatives and friends gathered for this service. We returned home and then attended the funeral for Elden Hathaway at the Baptist Church in Bryant Pond that afternoon. There was a large attendance of friends and relatives with a total of over 200 attending. This was a different kind of funeral with lots of good music, which Elden certainly would have enjoyed. The service was conducted by Roland Lord, a good friend of Elden's.

That evening we attended a supper and meeting of Androscoggin Pomona which was hosted by West Minot Grange. They were working the Pomona Degree on a large class of candidates, and I wanted to see another Pomona Grange work the degree. We worked the degree in our Pomona in April and I wanted to compare. Some things were done differently, but they did a fine job. Our State Grange Master came for the purpose of inspection and congratulated the Grange.

Thursday forenoon I had my monthly blood test at the hospital, and then we went to Auburn to visit Viva. Viva likes to go out to eat, and I decided that she would be as pleased with going out to eat as she would for anything else I could give her for Mother's Day, so I took Viva, her daughter Wynona and sister Peggy all out to eat at The Village Inn Restaurant for an early Mother's Day present. Viva loves scallops and she got her fill of them that day. The Village Inn Restaurant is an excellent place to satisfy your food desires. After having our dinner we returned to their home, where we visited for a while longer. Then we went to the home of Myrna and Bernard White, where we visited and had supper before returning home.

Friday and Saturday, I spent much of my time getting seeds planted in some small cups and other containers. I start these in my cold frame and then do lots of transplanting later on. It's rather a miserable job transplanting all the plants, but I usually have pretty good luck doing so.

Sister Peggy went to the dance at Locke Mills Saturday evening, but was tired and didn't stay to the end of the dance.

Yesterday was a beautiful Mother's Day. Sister Laura Hutchins from East Andover and Charlotte Cole from Locke Mills both came to have dinner with us. We played several games of 63 in the afternoon. Charlotte was having throat problems so wasn't in very good trim for singing. We all enjoyed the games of 63, but Peggy and I really took royal beating from Charlotte and Laura. In the late afternoon the girls all went out gathering dandelion greens for sister Laura to take home. Then they stayed to a sandwich supper with us before returning to their homes. Sunday evening callers were Maynard and Cynthia Trundy from West Minot. Many years ago I got acquainted with them when I tested milk for the Dairy Herd Improvement Association. I have many pleasant memories of those days and the many friends that I made.

The dance on May 22 with the Richard Felt Orchestra will be held at the Locke Mills Town Hall. There are five Saturdays this month, and I haven't heard if there will be a dance on May 29 or if they will be taking a rest.

Callers this past week at the Lovejoy home have been Bertha Benoit and Christopher Whittemore from West Paris.

To you good people that are driving at night, be very careful and keep your eyes on the road, as animals are often on the wrong side of the road. Saturday night, a car ran into a bear on Route 26 near Felt's turn. The nice car was totaled and the bear was killed, but, thankfully, the passengers in the car weren't hurt. These results compare with earnings of $293,617, or $3.52 per share, for the same period last year.

Earnings for the nine month period ended March 31 were $923,879, or $1.61 per share, compared to $832,591 or $1.42 per share, for the same period last year.

On March 31 total consolidated assets of Bethel Bancorp stood at $178,922,984, while book value per share was $23.42.

Bethel also declared a third quarter dividend of $0.08 per share payable on May 21 to shareholders of record on May 10. Bethel Bancorp has now paid a dividend every quarter since it went public in August, 1987.

Jim Delamater, President and CEO of Bethel Bancorp said "management is very pleased and excited about the performance of both Brunswick and Bethel Savings. Each bank owned under the Bancorp umbrella continues to maintain individual autonomy while enjoying the benefits of a centralized structure."

Bethel Bancorp is a multi-bank holding company which owns and operates individual "community banks." Each bank is managed by a local management team and board of directors. Bethel Bancorp is designed to provide support and cost savings to the individual subsidiary banks.

Recently, as part of this strategy, the Bancorp opened an Operations Center, which provides data services and other operational benefits to each subsidiary bank. In addition, the Bancorp opened a Small Business Loan Center, which is designed to originate loans to small business customers throughout the various market areas which are served by both Brunswick Federal and Bethel Savings.

Delamater added that, "both the data center and the Small Business Loan Center have had a very positive effect upon the performance of the entire company."

The Operations Center is located in Lewiston; the Small Business Loan Center is located in Auburn. These locations are central to both Brunswick Federal and Bethel Savings. (The Small Business Loan Center is actively seeking to develop and originate loans to service the needs of small business customers. The telephone number for the facility is 800-870-3176).

Community Concepts offers homeownership programs

Community Concepts, a nonprofit community action agency based in South Paris, has a variety of homeownership programs with the goal of helping people become more self-sufficient and more stable economically, and helping communities become better places for everyone.

Homeownership programs at Community Concepts are designed to remove the barriers to home ownership for hardworking families. Down payments are not required.

A program to assist families in purchasing government-owned properties is in the works and will be up and running in early 1994.

Community Concepts' Self-Help Homebuilding Program has helped six families build homes in the Norway area and is almost ready to help seven families begin construction on homes in the Buckfield area.

The Self-Help Homebuilding program works in partnership with the Farmers Home Administration and hardworking families. Farmers

Home provides the mortgage funds, Community Concepts provides technical and administrative assistance, and the families provide the construction labor.

Informational meetings about Community Concepts' homeownership programs will be held in the Rumford/Dixfield area on June 1 at the Green Church in Mexico, in Bethel on June 2 at Telstar High School, in Fryeburg on June 3 at the Legion Hall, and in South Paris on June 4 at Community Concepts. Attendance at one of the meetings is the first step in becoming qualified to participate.

Community Concepts has provided housing programs in western Maine since 1970 and also provides children's services, social services and economic development services.

Its mission is to coordinate, collaborate and focus resources to help people in need build opportunities for a better tomorrow. For further information call Community Concepts at 743-7716.

BASSES TO BE HONORED

On May 22, as part of the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce awards banquet, the United Way of Oxford County will recognize Rev. Brendon Bass and Rev. Jean Bass of Bethel for their efforts in the pursuit of helping others, particularly the community's youth. This will be the first time that the local United Way has presented such an award.

Nominations for the award came from member agencies of the United Way of Oxford County. Nominees had demonstrated community leadership in carrying out the United Way mission of increasing the capacity of people to care for one another. The couple who will receive the United Way award are in three of the main areas of human service activity supported by the United Way: youth development, emergencies and home care and support.

The award to be presented is named for Hugh J. Chisholm (1847-1912), because of his impact on Oxford County's development but even more importantly because of his planning for and financing of affordable housing as well as educational and recreational facilities in the community of Rumford for the working families who had come there for employment.

WALKER HONORED BY TANDY TECH. SCHOLARS

Melissa Walker of New Sharon was recently named an outstanding student by the Tandy Technology Scholars, a program to recognize academic excellence in the areas of mathematics, science and computer science.

Melissa, who will be attending Oberlin College next fall, was recognized for her academic excellence in all three categories.

She is the daughter of Craig C. Walker of Nashville, Tenn. and Aimee Bauer of New Sharon and the granddaughter of Virginia Walker and the late Don Walker of Bethel.

Rumford Hospital bazaar planned for Saturday

The fourth annual Rumford Community Hospital Auxiliary Spring Bazaar will be held on the hospital grounds Saturday, May 22, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Country craft items will be a special feature of the craft table this year. There will be children's games and face painting. A favorite feature of past years, the doll and teddy bear clinic, will be holding office hours from 9 a.m. to noon for young folks to have their favorite doll or teddy have a free check-up. A clown will be in attendance giving balloons, free of charge, to young and old. There will be a food table with goodies galore.

The Rotary lunch wagon will sell hot dogs and fried dough, chili, hamburgers, coffee and doughnuts will also be on sale.

The Elks will be running their Lucky 7 game and beano will be held starting at 10 o'clock.

A new event at this year's bazaar will be a pie-baking contest, open to anyone wishing to bake a pie. There will be no entrance fee. Bakers are asked to have the pie at the bazaar by 11 o'clock. After the judging, all pies will be sold to benefit the event.

The Garden Club will again preside over the sale of a variety of spring annuals. The Elks' van for free diabetes and blood pressure screening will again be visiting the bazaar. Tickets for the Grand Prize, $1,000, will be on sale. Ticket sales have been ongoing in the community for several weeks, and the winning ticket will be drawn at the bazaar at 3 p.m. There will also be a Chinese auction that day with winners drawn at the same time, plus other raffle items.

A tailgate yard sale is also planned that day with spaces being rented for the cost of $10 to benefit the bazaar. Only yard-sale items can be sold. Anyone wishing to clean out their attic or garage and rent a space at the bazaar is asked to contact Shirley Fifield at 364-8978.

All proceeds from the bazaar go directly to benefit the Rumford Community Hospital Auxiliary scholarship fund and other special projects to benefit the hospital.

COUNTY G.O.P. MEETS

Sen. Charles E. Summers (R-Scarborough) was the featured speaker at the May monthly meeting of the Oxford County Republican Committee held in Stoneham on May 11. Summers, now serving his second term in the Maine Senate, described his efforts as a member of the Taxation Committee to reduce the tax burden for Maine taxpayers. He reiterated his opposition to any new taxes and his support for phasing out the "temporary" taxes enacted last year which are scheduled to expire this year.

During the business portion of the meeting, chairman Stan Howe of Bethel announced that the next meeting would be held in West Paris at the Finnish-American Hall on June 8. A supper will be served to the County Committee by the Finnish-Americans for $5.50 per person. Featured speaker for the evening will be the new executive director of the Maine Republican Party, Ben Coes.

Committee reports were heard from John Underwood of Oxford on his progress toward organizing young Republicans in Oxford County, Norman Rust of Waterford on revising the Committee's constitution, Rick Jackson of Paris on public relations, and Becky Kendall of Bethel on the Voter List Project. Michelle Franke of Ossfield was named to represent Oxford County in planning a tri-county picnic/fundraiser planned for September with Androscoggin and Franklin counties.

Reports were heard from State Committee members Becky Kendall of Bethel and Rick Jackson of Paris as well as John Underwood of Oxford, county vice chair, who represented Chairman Howe at this meeting.

Rep. Rick Bennett (R-Norway), Rep. Al Barth (R-Bethel), and Sen. Dana Hanley (R-Paris) reported on recent events during the current Legislative session. Sheriff Lloyd "Skip" Herrick spoke of the recent fundraising effort by the Sheriff's Association, describing the controversy as politically motivated.

A rising vote of thanks was given to the Stoneham Republican Committee for their fine hospitality and fine food. Chairman Howe noted an error in the list of meeting sites announced previously. The October meeting of the Committee will be held in Woodstock, not Dixfield.

NOTES FROM Telstar Guidance

Counselors Dan Hart and Beth LaVallee have extended an open invitation to Telstar sophomores, juniors and their parents to attend a special Post-Secondary Planning Workshop hosted by their department. The program is scheduled for Thursday, May 20 at 7 p.m. in the Telstar Library. Special guest presenters will be admissions officers from Maine Maritime Academy, Husson College, New Hampshire Technical College, University of New England, University of Maine at Farmington, the United States Navy and Kent's Hill School.

They will speak on many topics underclassmen need to be thinking about when preparing for education and training beyond high school, including the financial aid process, college placement, making college comparisons, technical education programs, social adjustment from high school to college, the college admissions process, the liberal arts option, postgraduate schools and programs, choosing a military service--the options and the process. Mr. Hart and Mrs. LaVallee look forward to a great turnout for this most valuable workshop.

They include Douglas Bennett, son of Richard and Kathleen Bennett of Albany, at the University of Maine as a secondary education major; Pam Bennett, daughter of Andrea Bennett of Bethel, at the University of New Hampshire's School of Applied Business Management; Amanda Henricks, daughter of Timothy and Karen Henricks, at Quinnipiac College, Hamden, Conn. for physical therapy; Noelle Gauthier, daughter of Jackie Gauthier of Bethel, at the University of Southern Maine for business administration; Faye Luxton, daughter of David and Deborah Luxton of West Bethel, at the University of Southern Maine as well as Anderson University and Bethel College (both in Indiana) for a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing; MacLynn Patten, daughter of Leroy and Ann Patten of Bethel, at Clark University, Worcester, Mass. for environmental studies; and Albert Silver, son of Albert and Peggy Silver of Greenwood, as a machine tool technology major at Southern Maine Technical College, So. NOVA budget up sharply

By JAMES STEVENS

The Northern Oxford Vocational Area cooperative board last week passed by unanimous vote a $767,680 budget, an increase of $129,800 over last year.

"It was as near to what I feel we could all live with and get the people's support. I couldn't ask for any more, and it was quite difficult to ask for less," said board member J. Eugene Boivin of Rumford.

According to Charles Tanous, NOVA chief administrator, the cost of maintaining existing programs is $704,632 and the cost of two new programs is $63,050.

"I was looking for something in the area of a 10 percent increase, and we are right in that range with this year's increase," said board member Boivin LaBrecque of Byron.

The motion to accept the budget was made by Boivin and seconded by LaBrecque, both of whom sit on the SAD 43 board of directors as well as the NOVA board.

"Most of the discussion having to do with the budget really centered around compensation for our faculty. There was very little over which we have a lot of control if we don't cut programs," said Chairman Norman Clanton of Bethel.

The new programs are office technology and allied health occupations. The allied health occupations replaces the certified nurses aide program, but it will be two semesters instead of one, according to Clanton.

"We budgeted money which would amount to $15,350 for the faculty. However, we haven't taken any official action on the actual pay scale," Clanton said. The faculty has not signed contracts to date.

Much of the three-hour meeting was in executive session to discuss the salary increase for faculty.

"I know that Charlie Tanous has worked very hard on this budget, and I want to give credit to my board because they worked very hard on this budget. There has been a great deal of thought given to what has been done here," Clanton said.

SAD 44 Superintendent Dewaine Craig, who will take over from Tanous as NOVA executive director, said, "I am pleased that the budget has passed. It will help us get on with our own budget."

Tanous' original budget called for $805,000. The board pared that figure down over the past three weeks by $37,400.

"We have tried to do the best we can for our students, keeping in mind our responsibilities to our staff, and all the way through the process ever mindful of how tight it is for those who have to foot the bill, the taxpayers," said Clanton.

"Grease" at Gould

The Gould Academy Drama Department will present its spring community musical, "Grease", playing May 21 and 22 at 7:30 p.m. in Bingham Hall, Gould Academy. The show is free and open to the public.

"Grease", billed as the "new 50's rock 'n' roll musical," highlights the trials and tribulations of teenagers from the era which gave birth to rock 'n' roll. The story focuses on the lives of a group of friends and explores the many issues: peer pressure, self-esteem, competition, dating, which are daily occurrences in the lives of young adults, no matter what the time period. The style of music, so easily recognizable as 50's rock, is interwoven throughout the show's story line.

The cast, crew, and band is comprised of a myriad of students and community members. Gould students in the show are: Emily Terray, Brigitta Dubin, Samantha Langlois, Jill Nowak, Kristen Petrone, Quentin Stockwell, Rob Blake, Erik Reppen, Kevin Ege, Emily Roy, Meredith Otten, Katie Hutchins, Chip Liscome, Leah Bonnema, M.J. Reed, Kendra Hutchinson, Eric Stirling, Greg Gnecco, Tristan Cuthbert, John Oprendek, Randy Schubert and Brandy Haught. Community members in the show are Doug Alford, Linda, Sarah and Rachel Stowell, Phillip Buchanen, Dan Smith, Michael Newsom and Sarah Rackliffe. The tech crew—Nedda Campbell, Jessica Trundy, Leah Muliero, Carlotta Martinez, Sarah Cohen—is headed up by the technical director, Vicki Rackliffe. And the band, from the community, is headed up by the Gould music teacher, Deirdre Wellahan and pianist, Faye Hill, with Loretta Varo, from The Only Place on sax, Eric Peters of West Bethel on guitar, Terry Elsmore of Bryant Pond on guitar, Mike Desjardins on drums, and Brendon Bass of Bethel on bass. The choreography is the creation of Kay Marsella, an experienced community theater performer and dancer. The production is being held together by stage manager Sigrid Stanley, a Gould junior, and is directed by Gould drama teacher, Kathy Slack Lamoreau.

Thanks are in order for Jay Sanborn, of "J's Used Chevy Parts" from South Waterford, for the loan of his awesome Chevy car parts and Dale Farrar, from Twitchell's "Undercover Antique Mall" Oxford, for the loan of the many authentic 50's items seen in the show. And a special thanks to Earl Lamoreau for his assistance and technical expertise.

The making of a great show has come about because of the many talents and contributions of these wonderful students and community members.

Jackson-Silver Post #68

Members of the Jackson-Silver Post 68 gathered at their Legion Hall, Thursday, May 6 for their annual Installation Service of all the officers elected at their last meeting. The installing officials were: Installing Officer, Vito DeFilipp; Chaplain, Joe Vatalaro; Sgt-at-Arms, Edward Roach. These officers were members of Post 24 in Rumford.

The new officers installed were as follows: Post Commander, Earl Tyler; First Vice, Andrew Bartlett; Second Vice, Raymond Tripp; Adjutant, Brian Strickland; Finance Officer, Richard Cross; Chaplain, Rodney Hanscom; Historian, Edley Strickland; Service Officer, Nicholas Clements; Sgt-at-Arms, Daniel Davis.

Following the installation the members of the Post present gathered for an informal business meeting to deal with some pressing matters.

Quite a lengthy discussion was given to the up-coming Memorial Day Parade, Grave Decorations and the State Convention to be held in Bangor this year. Four will be attending from this Post. Rodney Hanscom asked for some of the members to join them at a Memorial Day observance in Newry.

It was voted to grant a disabled veteran an emergency gift to help out in an unexpected and unexplained disability pension being discontinued.

MSHA OFFERS APARTMENT PURCHASE, REHAB HELP

A new Maine State Housing Authority program will, for the first time, provide low-cost loans to help purchase and rehabilitate small-scale apartment properties in the state, according to MSHA Director Dwight A. Sewell.

The Statewide Housing Acquisition and Rehab Program (SHARP), which began this month, combines tax-exempt MSHA bonds with money available under the new federal HOME program to provide funds to purchase and rehab apartments. SHARP provides up to $17,500 per unit in interest-free, deferred loans. Additional funds are available at 7.5 percent interest rate, for a 25-year term.

"The SHARP program is an excellent way for entrepreneurs, small investors and nonprofit housing sponsors to participate in today's real estate market," Sewell said. "From a housing perspective, it is a way for us to rehabilitate substandard apartments and increase the supply of affordable housing for low-income Maine people."

Borrowers using the interest-free SHARP funds must reserve the apartments for low or very low income tenants. The units must be repaired to meet current building codes and remain affordable for a minimum of five years. They must also remain affordable for as long as the borrower uses the deferred interest-free loan, which has a 25-year term.

Sewell noted that previous MSHA programs involving small (up to 10-unit) apartment buildings, financed only the rehab costs. The programs did not provide money to acquire buildings, so only existing owners could use them.

"This new program paves the way for anyone interested in real estate investment to become involved," Sewell said. "We think it also will provide a vehicle for current owners, who to sell them to new investors, who can turn the property around with a SHARP loan."

MSHA's Development Division staff is conducting meetings around the state to provide information about the program. For information about the program, or a meeting in a particular region, contact MSHA's Development Division through the agency's toll free number 1-800-452-4668.

Installation of officers of Jackson-Silver Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, for the 1993-94 year took place on May 6. Installing officer of the ladies was Past District President Sylvia Dunham, assisted by Past Department President Fannie Cummings as Chaplain and Cathryn Lovejoy as Sergeant-at-Arms.

The new officers are led by Leah Deegan as president. Other officers are: First Vice President, Noreen Russo; Second Vice President, Martha Stowell; Secretary, Olive Risko; Treasurer, Vera Cross; Chaplain, Kathleen McAllister; Historian, Kathy Bartlett; Sergeant-at-Arms, Betsy Gaudreau.

Following installation of Post officers by Vito DeFilipp, Past National Vice Commander, refreshments of strawberry shortcake were enjoyed.

At the charter, draped in memory of comrade Elden Hathaway, prayers were offered by Chaplain

Rodney Hanscom.

At the meeting which followed, the 1993 Poppy Girl was announced as being Erika Tripp, daughter of Jr. Past Commander Raymond Tripp. She will assist Unit Poppy Chairman Vera Cross in distributing poppies in Locke Mills and Bryant Pond on May 13, 14 and 15. She will also march in the parades on Memorial Day.

In other business it was voted to purchase a flowering tree for the garden area being developed by the Post at the west end of the building. A donation was voted to Opportunity Farm for Boys.

Zylpha Emmons was elected to replace Mary Lyon as a delegate to the State Convention in June and Martha Stowell and Olive Risko were designated to be responsible for the Colors and Unit Banner at convention.

As usual, the Unit members will be participating in the parades on Memorial Day.

Vera Cross will be procuring the flowers for the Honor Roll, for tossing into the water, and for the Gold Star Mothers' graves.

The next regular meeting of the Unit is May 20. Members are reminded that it was voted to bring a can or package of food for the Food Bank to each meeting. At 1 p.m., or whatever time they can get there, on the day of the meeting members will assemble at the hall for the purpose of cleaning the storeroom and kitchen and taking an inventory. Those coming should bring something to share for a pot-luck meal after the cleaning session and before the meeting.

Other dates to remember are as follows: the Second District has its last meeting before convention on May 16 at 2 p.m. at the Farmington American Legion Home and the Oxford County Council meets at Fryeburg at 7:30 p.m. on May 18.

THOUGHTS FROM THE Pastor's Study

The Bethel Area Clergy Association, with the help of pastors of surrounding churches, brings you these meditations. Not based on any set theme, they will be individual for each pastor. It is hoped you will find in these words comfort and hope for your daily life.

Flowering trees, bushes and bulbs are brightening our landscapes, cheering our hearts. Gardeners are dreaming of perfect perennials and vegetables. Gardens are tilled, the peas, lettuce, spinach, and carrots are in. Spring is here.

We might think of the gardening experience as an opportunity to be co-curators with God. As in all creation, there is mystery. We learn all we can about the best conditions for growth and do our best, but how does the garden grow? How does that little seed become a big head of lettuce? It is a mystery. In our acts of co-creation, we feel whole. Body and spirit are together. We are focused and purposeful.

Appreciating the beauty around as contributed by others as well as ourselves, starting our gardens to nourish body and spirit, awakening to springtime and new life, we can be aware of the creator, sustainer and redeemer of our lives.

Episcopal Priest
